

Rose Bowl

News

December 2020

Hello again!

Thank you for the lovely reception we had for our first Newsletter. How are you all doing?

We have had some lovely entries for the one-off Lockdown Rose Bowl Award so far. It is lovely to see Groups working with their membership on all the different ways to stay involved and keeping everyone entertained.

If you haven't put your video together yet, please do. There are so many ways in which you can show us what you are doing.

You can send us any entry illustrating your work as a group, or maybe a dramatic monologue, or even a simple song. You might be able to put together a full dramatic piece, or perhaps a comedy. Actually, anything goes... We would just enjoy seeing what you've all been up to during these challenging times.

Don't worry, we will give you fair notice of the closing date for entries. Simply send your entries directly to Liz-Anne at secretary@therosebowlawards.org.uk

We are learning to adapt

It is so sad to see how both the professional and amateur theatre worlds have been hit by the restrictions this pandemic has provoked and we know everyone is looking at the different ways in which we can continue to entertain and educate. This being the case, we wanted to let you know of a new entry medium for when the restrictions are lifted enough that Groups can think about putting on a production.

We at The Rose Bowl Awards realise that Groups are likely to be looking to present their productions over the internet for a digital audience. Therefore, for the first time, we are going to allow streamed or recorded productions to enter the Rose Bowl Awards. Further information will be available shortly, but in the meantime any immediate questions can be sent to us at the following email address: secretary@therosebowlawards.org.uk

Now, let us look at 2021 with positive eyes. We have already seen some green shoots of new productions starting up again for 2021.

We WILL be able to meet and we WILL be back on stage. The Rose Bowl Awards WILL take place on Sunday 14th November 2021 at the Winter Gardens, Weston Super Mare, where we will celebrate all things theatrical.

As we confirmed in the last newsletter, all the adjudications for productions adjudicated prior to lockdown in March are being carried forward into 2021 when the Adjudicators and Committee all look forward to seeing your entries once again.

We would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a safe and peaceful Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Let's hope 2021 is memorable for all the right reasons.
